ReBuphone call 2/14/56.

COURTNEY PACE, Administrative Asst. to Senator EASTLAND advised he notified Chief ROBERT MURRAY, Metropolitan PD of receipt of phone call by Mrs. EASTLAND. MURRAY told him cars of local precinct would pay close attention to EASTLAND residence and a detective would be stationed at residence 2/15/56.

Mrs. EASTLAND interviewed by Bureau Agents today. She states at 10:15 AM today phone in her residence rang. She answered. Cultured male voice with no accent said, "Mrs. EASTLAND?". She said yes. Male said, "Your husband, that rat, has been going around the South talking about the Negroes. He can not hide and I am going to kill him." Caller then hung up before she could reply. She believes this was local call as no coins dropped and no operator placing call. She has no suspects. No similar calls received. Telephone listed in name of [redacted]

[redacted] Phone number widely known to friends and associates. Mrs. EASTLAND stated any further calls would be referred to PACE in Senator's office. No indication given to Mrs. EASTLAND that FBI was making any investigation.

UACB no report being submitted.
